

INFLUENTIAL WOMEN OF DESIGN | COLORADO

“When it comes to design, we understand the significance of creating something truly special for each client.”

A DESIGNER, DEFINED

Hayley Freundlich shares her unique story and insights.

- Name a mentor who has influenced you. I've always been inspired by my mother. She takes pride in all that she does and has taught me about dedication, drive and how to fearlessly go after the things I want.
- Who is the ultimate female design icon? Dorothy Draper was a trailblazer who set the tone for women in the interior design industry. Her use of color, one-of-a-kind style and ambitious combinations are a high design bar.
- Share a project that exemplifies your style. We recently finished a main floor remodel that was heavily focused on the custom kitchen. The client, who finds deep satisfaction in cooking, wanted specific features that we were able to bring to life in a true dream space.

Where elegance, functionality, foresight and a collaborative spirit meet, great design is born. So it is with Hayley & Co. As the founder and principal designer, Hayley Freundlich brings unique talents, skills and passions to the chic, thoughtful homes and environments she creates for her clients. “We are a luxury interior design studio that serves our residential and commercial clientele with a sophisticated aesthetic,” she says.

“With our mission to approach each project with holistic vision, we design spaces that are a true reflection of the people who will live and work in them, while offering a wide range of customizable interior design services that provide our clients with true flexibility. Because design is ever evolving, our goal is to curate exceptional custom spaces that will serve our clients in their daily lives and elevate their lifestyles for years to come.”
